THIS AND THAT FROM SENIORS

By Goldie Southwood 9/30/24

85 Days until Christmas

*Joe Geese's Memorial was postponed due to a family illness. Now it is scheduled for Tuesday, October 1st at 6 pm at the North Pole Assembly of God Church, at 503 Kit Blvd.

*Valliere Forrest now has hot water, after heating it on the stove for 78 days. What a relief for her.

*We were saddened by the loss of our dear friend Larry White. He was a treasure to me personally when I was President of our Senior Center from 2016-2019. One lasting gift from him was the wooden podium that he made and we are still using today. Since he was a founder of Atta Boy Awards, I am getting them to make a plaque commemorating the podium. It is a lasting tribute to him. We will miss his humorous stories at exercise class. Our thoughts and prayers to Sharon and their loving family. They were married for 64 years. His Memorial Service will be held on Sunday, October 6th at the VFW Hall, 3159 VFW Road at 3pm

*Special Thanks to Wanda Weatherby for taking over the Chairmanship of the Jewelry Sale for me, at the Vintage Faire in the Shopper's Forum in Fairbanks. There will be a report on the sale in the next newsletter.

We are thankful for family and friends.....Goldie

Farkle Tournament

October 14, 2024 11:30am

Time of the year again to have a fun Farkle Tournament for our seniors. No cost. All are invited. Fund prizes are given out for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place and Red Lantern is presented to the one with the lowest score. Come and join us. Sign up sheet is available for those interested.

Gift Shop Artist Spotlight:

Betty Maness creates amazing earrings and delicious honey!

Betsy Bear is a local artist who creates beautiful paintings and turns them into postcards and posters so we all can enjoy and share her work.

The podium in the meeting room, made by Larry White, will be dedicated in his name with a plaque made by Atta Boy Awards.

Carmen Sears makes kuspuks and other crafts, such as seal skin ornaments. The seal skin ornaments are a fundraiser project for the center, Hunter donated the seal skin and Carmen is donating the time to make them.

October 2024 Volunteers of the Month

New Presbyterian Church members Diane and Lenny Jewkes, Lori Buzby, Cindy Cocharan, and Pam Hughes.

Diane is a very busy person who has formed a group of ladies from her church who volunteers here at the Santa's Senior Center in helping prepare and serve many meals for our monthly birthday luncheons.

Many times they have helped prepare and serve the Center's annual Thanksgiving dinners that are provided for our seniors who do not have close families here in the Interior of Alaska.

Diane and her husband Lenny have been members of the Santa Senior Center since 2016. They are avid hunters and fishermen and in many occasions have provided moose meat, salmon, and halibut for meals that Diane and her ladies have helped James Hunter and Marie O'Neil prepare and serve for our seniors.

Another many volunteering hours that these ladies have given is quilting hot pads and dish warmers for our kitchen as well as selling these items in our Gift Shop.

Diane's group plus some of our seniors here at the Center help distribute the annual Easter food bags throughout the Fairbanks, North Pole, and Moose Creek community area each year. These bags are brought to the Center and Hunter makes sure that these ladies are contacted for distribution.

Now I am told that Diane, Lenny, and Lori have been volunteering here at the Center for many years, and those who do not know who Diane Jewkes is, she's the tall lady that goes around asking if you want a scoop of ice cream with your birthday cake.

We give many thanks and congratulations to the New Hope Methodist Church volunteers!
